To
Rajamantrapravina N. Madhava Rao, B.A.,B.L.,
Dewan of Mysore,
Carlton House,
BANGALORE.

Dear Sir,

Ref: My book "Air Raids and Civil Defence" Second Edition.

In my letter dated 9-5-1942, I had requested the Dewan's patronage for popularising my recent publication 'Air Raids and Civil Defence' among the several departments and Officers under your esteemed control. I was gratified to receive your reply dated Bangalore 15-5-1942 from the Private Secretary, informing me that my letter had been sent to the Chief Secretary for necessary action.

The Second Edition, revised, enlarged and brought up-to-date is the only publication of its kind in India and incorporates the recent experiences and researches in air attacks and precautionary measures. I dare say it is indispensable to A.R.P. Officers and Organisations, Municipal Corporations, Industries & their Organisations, Educational Institutions, Administrators, Architects, Engineers, Surveyors, Police Officials and everybody interested in A.R.P.

Although A.R.P. has been making rapid progress in enlighted Mysore State entrusted to your able control, the response has not been encouraging - in fact the Chief Secretary at Bangalore purchased two copies only.

The book was produced at great cost largely in the interest of Civil Defence, and not as a commercial proposition. The patronage of enlightened adminstrators is essential for such a publication to become popular and achive the aim of the author.
